

Indie Made Boutique is a collectively run community of local artisans & is currently accepting applications for new members. Members sell their handmade goods in a retail space in downtown Boise, and together share responsibility for the care, maintenance and success of the boutique.

Indie Made houses work from artisans who create original, quality, handcrafted goods. Members include those who make jewelery, knitted and crocheted goods, baby goods, aprons, hair accessories, bath & body products, recycled and upcycled items, & tons of other fun stuff! Interested artists are encouraged to come down to the boutique and see for yourself.

Who makes a good member?

Any talented artisan who is creative, responsible, and able to work in a cooperative atmosphere with others. All members invest time and creativity, as well as share in the financial obligations associated with running the boutique. As with most things, you get back out what you put in... and the boutique could be a great success for you!

Okay, so what's it gonna run me?

Members can expect to pay from $50 to $120 a month, depending on their work availability and length of contract. There is no additional commission other than a small credit card processing fee. Applicants may choose a level that fits their individual needs. Very reasonable for a downtown location!

Process for joining...

When there is an opening in the boutique, applicant decisions are made by the boutique steering committee. Varied and unique merchandise, saturation of each creative category, and integrity of the handcrafted goods are all important considerations. Membership needs are constantly changing, so keep your application on file with us.

Interested...yes, maybe, or need more info?

Please contact our super nice membership advisor, Steven Dextor, for an application or more info at innov8ivedesign@qwestoffice.net.

Join us, it's fun!