

ARTIST CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Boise City Seeks to Purchase Artwork for the Boise Visual Chronicle (BVC) and Portable Works (PW) Collections

DEADLINE: July 26th, 2019 at 3pm Mountain Standard Time

TOTAL BUDGET: $24,999

OPPORTUNITY

In 2017, the Arts & History Commission endorsed a statement on cultural equity. In recognition of the initiative, the Department of Arts & History will strive to accession works into the collections which serve to reflect the rich and diverse past, present, and future of the Boise community.

“To support a full creative life for all, Americans for the Arts commits to championing policies and practices of cultural equity that empower a just, inclusive, and equitable nation.” Cultural equity embodies the values, policies, and practices that ensure that all people—including, but not limited to, those who have been historically underrepresented based on race or ethnicity, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, socioeconomic status, geography, citizenship status, or religion—are represented. Cultural equity is critical to the long-term viability of the arts sector. The prominent presence of artists challenges inequities and encourages alternatives.

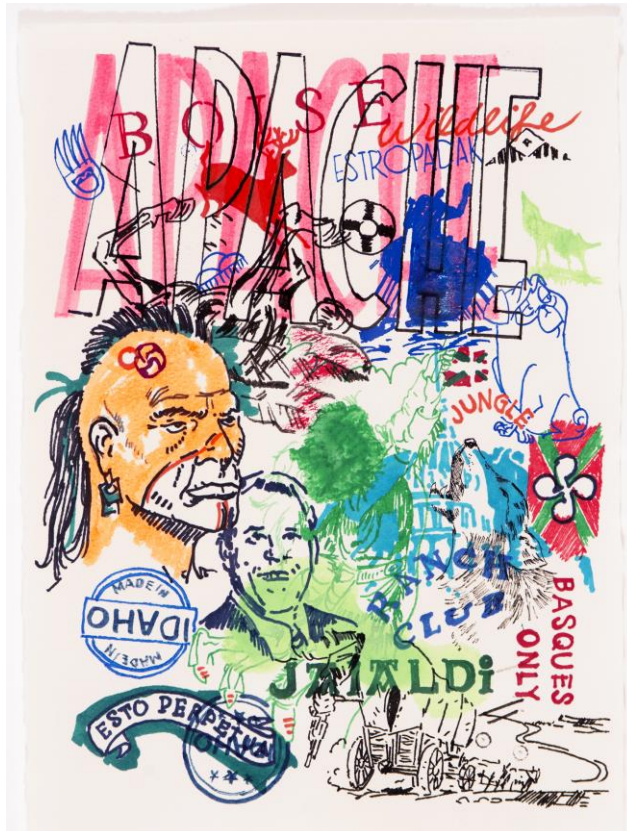

Boise City invites artists to apply for the opportunity to have artwork purchased and accessioned into the City of Boise’s Public Art Collection. Artists are invited to apply with existing artwork that is unframed and currently available for purchase.

PROJECT INFORMATION

The Boise Visual Chronical collection was first initiated in 1996 through funding provided by the Greater Boise Auditorium District and Capitol City Development Corporation. The focus was on collecting works which depict various aspects of life and culture within Boise. Since the program’s initiation, small changes have been made to the collection practice, such as the creation of the Portable Works collection in 2016, to more accurately reflect and document the broad array of artistic practices within Boise, ID.

The Boise Visual Chronical (BVC) collection is a permanent, city-owned collection of over 200 two-dimensional and three-dimensional works which include paintings, drawings, prints, photography, and sculpture. The work within this collection depicts various perspectives of life in Boise, all by numerous and diverse Idaho artists. The collection provides a rich visual document of Boise’s changing landscape, people and perspectives. In addition, it is a unique portrait of the artistic vitality and evolving perceptions of the artists in the region.

The Portable Works collection consists of a majority of local artists with a small representation of regional, national, and international artists. This collection represents a concentrated directive of investing in Fine Artists through the purchase of their work. However, unlike the BVC, the Portable Works Collection has evolved the City’s repertoire to include more contemporary work with a broader thematic approach. The first dedicated Percent for Art acquisition for the Portable Works Collection was made in 2017.
