

WEST BOISE PUBLIC ART

WEST BOISE PUBLIC ART MAP

View the full collection online at boiseartsandhistory.org

BOISE CITY
DEPT OF ARTS
& HISTORY

WEST BOISE

To the west, striking metal sculptures reach for the sky, recalling the Greek god of the West Wind and the passage of time. Library windows invite us to dream in color. Painted murals whisper of conservation heroes, raptors, and mathematical structures found in nature. Which pieces speak to you?

1 Boise WaterShed Art Collection

BOISE WATERSHED ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION CENTER, 11818 W. JOPLIN RD. | Creative works inspired by wind, wetlands and the water cycle are presented by some of Boise's most innovative local artists. Featured: Enviroguard Pipe Tree (2008) by Irene Deely

2 HaBATat, 2012, Mark Baltés

HYATT HIDDEN LAKES RESERVE, 5301 N. MAPLE GROVE RD. | Origami bat made of steel operates as a functioning bat box.

3 Zephyrus, 2011, J. Amber Conger

HOBBLE CREEK PARK, 6050 N. PARK MEADOW WAY | 26-foot-tall wind-activated weathervane in copper, stainless steel and aluminum.

4 Ustick Dreaming, 2009, Judy & Dale Collins

USTICK LIBRARY!, 7557 W. USTICK RD. | Laminated glass with silkscreened historic images highlight the rich history of Ustick.

5 Morley Nelson Mural, 2010, Marcus Pierce

MORLEY NELSON COMMUNITY CENTER, 7701 W. NORTHVIEW ST. Celebrating Morley Nelson and birds of prey, this fabulous mural highlights the concept of sight and compares birds' eyes to cameras.

6 Structure and Play, 2008, Marcus Pierce

SYCAMORE PARK, 12275 E. BRADDOCK DR. | A series of six dynamic paintings explores the themes of children at play and the structures found in nature.

7 Windows in Time, 2008, J. Amber Conger

JULLION PARK, 3902 N. JULLION WAY | Geometric shapes represent the past, present and future; curving swirling patterns evoke an ever-changing influx of ideas and creativity.

• Traffic Box Art Wraps

VARIOUS LOCATIONS | Local artists transform everyday utilitarian devices into interesting and engaging public artworks. Featured: Trabajadoras Migrantes (2020) by Miguel Almeida

BOISE:

A CITY FOR EVERYONE.

Visit us online to view Boise's full art collection.

This guide features selected artworks in West Boise.

boiseartsandhistory.org