

Radio Boise is proud to announce our First Annual HiFi open call to artists on November 10, 2021. We are committed to supporting artists from all backgrounds, at all stages of their artistic lives, and to providing a platform for creators to express themselves and gain visibility within our community.

The Best in Show winner will be featured on our annual album cover art that is distributed to our HiFi Society members and contributors to the station, will receive a cash prize of $200, a swag bag of goodies from the station, and will also receive membership for one year into our elite HiFi Society (valued at $500.00). Best in Show will be selected via open voting online at www.radioboise.org and announced at our annual Practice New Years Eve party on Friday, December 3, 2021 online and live at the Olympic Venue in downtown Boise. All artist submissions will be available for viewing and for purchase at our online auction.
